PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Greetings!

I hope that you are all surviving the barrage of winter weather that has no end! But, we all know that God has great plans for us and so we trust!

Lori Penas, Holy Trinity Religious Education Director, has asked for volunteers to help pass out Word Among Us books after Masses this weekend. If you would be willing to help, please let the ushers know before Mass and then after communion head to the back of church to get your books. Thank you for considering!

We have elementary school conferences next Mon, March 4th. These conferences are optional but we would certainly love to see you attend! Please visit our school website www.winstedholyltrinity.org and then Students and Parents and then Conference Registration to find your child's class to sign up.

Friday, March 1st we do not have Mass due to a scheduling conflict. We will make up one of our missed dress up days from Catholic Schools Week. The high school students will have Throwback Day i.e. dress as a decade day, and the elementary students will have Career day!

Top 20 Tip - In all we do, we want to COMMUNICATE YOU MATTER. Does everything we say and do assure others that they matter to us? This isn't just our family or close friends but everyone we come in contact with on a daily basis. We need to speak directly to people, use their name and use kindness and respect. Great life lessons!

We had whole school adoration today. What a blessing to be able to gaze on the beloved and have him gaze on us! The following prayer is from a book by Vinny Flynn entitled 21 Ways to Worship: A Guide to Eucharistic Adoration. "Loving Father, may everything I do today begin with your inspiration and continue with your saving help. May my work always find its origin in you and, through you, reach completion. Amen!!

Thanks to everyone who participated by buying a ticket.
